Southeastern Wisconsin Regional Planning Commission

COMMISSION WELCOMES NEW COMMISSIONERS

Two new Commissioners have been appointed to the Southeastern Wisconsin Regional Planning Commission, representing Ozaukee and Walworth Counties. The new Commissioners were formally seated at the Commission's quarterly meeting on September 16, 2026.

Ozaukee County Commissioner Rob Holyoke serves on the Ozaukee County Board of Supervisors and is Chairperson of the County Board's National Resources Committee. He is a former Village of Thiensville Trustee and is a lifelong resident of Southeastern Wisconsin. Holyoke was appointed to the Commission by the Ozaukee County Board. He is a member of the Commission's Planning & Research Committee.

Walworth County Commissioner Mary Grossman is a Certified Public Accountant and attorney who has lived in Walworth County for 24 years. She serves as a Supervisor for the Town of Spring Prairie and is Chair of the Spring Prairie Planning and Zoning Commission. Grossman was appointed to the Commission by Governor Tony Evers. She is a member of the Commission's Planning & Research Committee.

The Commission is guided by a board of Commissioners, who make up three standing committees. Commissioners are appointed to six-year terms and can serve multiple terms. More information about the full Commission and Commissioner roster can be found at www.sewrpc.org/About-Us/Commissioners-and-Committees.