

Attachment 1

PRELIMINARY EJTF RETREAT FRAMEWORK

10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. or 11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Timeframe

Session I: How did we get here?

History of discriminatory practices and concentration of minority populations and low-income populations in the Region

Potential Speakers: Dr. Lois Quinn, Senior Scientist, UWM School of Continuing Education – Employment and Training Institute
RL McNeely, Professor Emeritus of Social Welfare, Helen Bader School of Social Welfare, UWM
James E. Causey, A Dream Derailed series from the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel
John Gurda, writer and historian
WUWM staff from Project Milwaukee

Session II: Who are we?

Lunch session: Task Force members, staff, and interested parties discuss their backgrounds and why they are passionate about environmental justice issues

Session III: What can we do?

Briefing on SEWRPC's role in land use, environmental, and transportation planning; the relationship between the Task Force and the work of the Commission; and implementation status of Task Force suggestions

Potential Speakers: SEWRPC staff

Discussion on how regional planning can be part of the solution to regional disparities and alternative approaches to regional planning issues

Potential Speakers: Dr. Kirk Harris, Associate Professor, UWM School of Architecture and Urban Planning
Overview of innovative practices from other RPCs/MPOs (SEWRPC staff)

Session IV: What's next?

Discussion on Task Force member expectations regarding knowledge of SEWRPC's work, meeting attendance, and new appointees

Discussion on topics to be addressed at Task Force meetings and the Task Force review process of SEWRPC's work

Discussion may be continued at future Task Force meetings

PRELIMINARY EJTF RETREAT FRAMEWORK

12:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. Timeframe

Session I: Who are we?

Lunch session: Task Force members, staff, and interested parties discuss their backgrounds and why they are passionate about environmental justice issues

Session II: How did we get here?

History of discriminatory practices and concentration of minority populations and low-income populations in the Region

Potential Speakers: Dr. Lois Quinn, Senior Scientist, UWM School of Continuing Education – Employment and Training Institute
RL McNeely, Professor Emeritus of Social Welfare, Helen Bader School of Social Welfare, UWM
James E. Causey, A Dream Derailed series from the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel
John Gurda, writer and historian
WUWM staff from Project Milwaukee

Session III: What can we do?

Briefing on SEWRPC's role in land use, environmental, and transportation planning; the relationship between the Task Force and the work of the Commission; and implementation status of Task Force suggestions

Potential Speakers: SEWRPC staff

Discussion on how regional planning can be part of the solution to regional disparities and alternative approaches to regional planning issues

Potential Speakers: Dr. Kirk Harris, Associate Professor, UWM School of Architecture and Urban Planning
Overview of innovative practices from other RPCs/MPOs (SEWRPC staff)

Session IV: What's next?

Discussion on Task Force member expectations regarding knowledge of SEWRPC's work, meeting attendance, and new appointees

Discussion on topics to be addressed at Task Force meetings and the Task Force review process of SEWRPC's work

Discussion may be continued at future Task Force meetings