EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

Eagle is served by the Palmyra-Eagle Area School District, with one of the two district elementary schools located in Eagle. Palmyra-Eagle High School boasts new computer classrooms to access today’s technology, as well as several career clusters including courses in business management, health science, public administration, agriculture, and other areas. Eagle is home to the Alice Baker Memorial Library, which is a member of the Waukesha and Jefferson Counties Bridges Library System.

Numerous higher education opportunities are also available to Eagle residents around Waukesha County and in neighboring counties. Waukesha County Technical College (WCTC) is located in Pewaukee and offers associate degrees, technical diplomas, and short-term certificates. Carroll University, a private university offering undergraduate and graduate programs, and UW-Milwaukee at Waukesha, a University of Wisconsin system freshman and sophomore campus, are both located in the City of Waukesha. UW-Whitewater in Walworth County offers undergraduate and graduate degrees in a wide variety of fields, as well as a Doctorate of Business Administration. In addition, Milwaukee County is home to 15 universities, including UW-Milwaukee, Marquette University, and the Milwaukee School of Engineering. Together, these universities offer a wide variety of undergraduate and graduate programs.

GOVERNMENT

The Village of Eagle is governed by a Village Board, consisting of a Village President and six trustees. The Board makes decisions regarding most Village matters, including the Village budget, capital improvements, ordinances and hiring. Administrative responsibility is shared by the Village President and Village Clerk who are responsible for the overall coordination and direction of the day-to-day operations of Village government. Eagle has a police force of about ten officers, and shares a fire department with the Town of Eagle.

PARKS

Eagle Village Park offers many activities including baseball, softball, tennis, sand volleyball, and a playground, providing a place for community members of all ages to gather. The Eagle Nature Trail, which connects the public library and the Eagle Elementary School, offers a relaxing stroll through natural prairie and woodland areas. Located just outside the Village in the Town of Eagle is Old World Wisconsin, a walk-through, hands-on, outdoor museum of Wisconsin pioneer life.

TRANSIT

Although the Village of Eagle is not directly served by public transit, Waukesha County Transit—operated by Wisconsin Coach Lines—provides commuter bus service from nearby Mukwonago to downtown Milwaukee, where riders can connect to numerous destinations by bus, rail, and air. The service operates weekdays over freeways with limited intermediate stops. The Mukwonago station is served by a park & ride lot, located near a variety of shops and restaurants.

TAXES

Property tax: $16.09 per $1,000 of assessed value
