EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES
The Hamilton School District serves Sussex with a multi-school campus. Students progress through two elementary schools divided by grade, a middle school, and a high school. The high school offers a STEM (science, technology, engineering and mathematics) program and training for Future Business Leaders of America. In addition, Sussex is served by a number of private schools and by the Sussex Public Library, which is a member of the Waukesha and Jefferson Counties Bridges Library System.

Numerous higher education opportunities are also available to Sussex residents around Waukesha County and in neighboring counties. Waukesha County Technical College (WCTC) is located in nearby Pewaukee and offers associate degrees, technical diplomas, and short-term certificates. Carroll University, a private university offering undergraduate and graduate programs, and UW-Waukesha, a University of Wisconsin system freshman and sophomore campus, are both located in the nearby City of Waukesha. In addition, Milwaukee County is home to 15 universities, including UW-Milwaukee, Marquette University, and the Milwaukee School of Engineering. Together, these universities offer a wide variety of undergraduate and graduate programs.
